Set amidst the stunning Costa Blanca landscape, at the base of the majestic Montgo mountain, lies a collection of 58 new apartments in phase 2 and 3, distinctively crafted Spanish-style apartments, enveloped by verdant foliage and natural splendor. Each apartment presents either 1 or 2 bedrooms, complemented by a well-appointed bathroom, a fully equipped kitchen, and a commodious living area. Residents can relish the outdoors on their private terrace or within the expansive communal garden, while the convenience of a dedicated laundry room adds to the appeal. Sustainability is a key focus, with hot water sourced from solar-powered boilers and energy-efficient amenities such as fibre optic internet and an energy certificate. Additionally, the property benefits from belonging to a homeowner's association, which oversees building insurance and the maintenance of communal areas including the pool and garden, ensuring a hassle-free living experience. Renovated with precision using Dutch construction expertise, these residences epitomize durability and longevity, promising enduring quality. Nestled adjacent to Denia's Zona Verde, residing here feels akin to living amidst a botanical paradise. From your terrace, soak in the invigorating sea breeze wafting in from the nearby Mediterranean. The expansive beaches of Denia beckon just a leisurely
