Detached and private villa in Dénia in a peaceful and quiet environment with five bedrooms and two bathrooms. We enter the property into an open-plan living/dining room full of light as it has a glass front. Here we also find a fully fitted kitchen that works by gas, a bedroom with an en-suite, and another room which is currently used as an office. An internal staircase brings us to the lower level where we find three more bedrooms and another bathroom. Outside, there are many terraces and seating areas from where you can enjoy impressive views of the green Montgo Mountains. There is also a generous pool with salted water, a vegetable garden, a laundry area, and a storage room. This property benefits from a private and covered parking space, air conditioning, a log burner, and different fruit trees. The centre of Denia and its blue-flagged beaches can be reached within a 5-minute drive, where we will find all the necessary amenities such as supermarkets, schools, restaurants, medical centres etc and the airports of Valencia and Alicante can be reached within an hour's drive.
