Rare opportunity to buy a secluded plot, with licence to build a luxury finca, in the Jalon valley. The location is very special. Tucked away in the Jalon valley, it is a haven of peace and tranquility, yet a mere 10 minutes drive to the busy Spanish town of Jalon, with all your amenities. The plot is simply beautiful with lovely views of the surrounding countryside, across the valley and on to the mountains. The land is over 10,000m<sup>2</sup>, and comes with a license in place to build a beautiful, luxury style finca. The design and build of the finca includes a swimming pool, solar energy system, terraces and gardens. The approximate cost of the build is 300,000+ euros depending on finishes. For further information on build and finishes please contact us within. This is a unique opportunity to build a home to your own specifications, in a dream location.
