Plot: 10774m²

Plot of 10774m² in a fantastic location in the picturesque village of Alcalali in the popular Jalon Valley. Located in a unique place with 360° views and within a short distance to the town, this plot of land is surrounded by mountains and the Gorgos river. It benefits from sun all year round, water from irrigation, the possibility to connect to the electricity, and also has good access which allows you to build the house of your dreams (200m² build) in a quiet and peaceful environment. Alcalali is a traditional Spanish village but very popular for walkers and cyclists as well as for its bars and restaurants. It also has its own theatre, museum, school, and sports complex. It is famous for the Festlali, a blossom trees festival. Alcalali is perfect for nature lovers but also is one step away from Denia, Calpe, Moraira, and their sandy beaches.
