Lovely finca with three bedrooms and two bathrooms in a unique location in the charming village of Lliber on the popular Jalon Valley, surrounded by nature but close to all services and just a short drive away from the largest towns of Javea and Moraira. The door opens into a bright living room with an open fireplace and fantastic views of the surroundings. Next to this, there is a south-facing glazed naya perfect for getting all the winter sun. The cozy dining room connects both the living room and a fully-fitted kitchen with plenty of storage room and a rustic style. Through a hallway, there are two double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes, and a shared bathroom with a shower. Up an internal staircase, we reach the upper level, here there is the master bedroom, which has a dressing area, a private bathroom, and a Juliette balcony. Outside there is a 5802m² well-maintained plot that combines different seating areas and terraces with mature trees, such as pomegranates, olive, almond, and fig. Here there is also a beautiful fish pond, a summer kitchen, a sauna, and a workshop. The property also benefits from gas central heating, a carport, plenty of space to park several cars, solar panels, air-conditioning, and a big water tank that collects water...
