Two-bedroom, two-bathroom townhouse on the urbanization Les Bassetes in Adsubia, just a short drive to the town of Pego. The property consists of a living/dining room, a guest WC, an open-plan kitchen, a terrace with fantastic views over the valley until the sea, from where we also can access the secured parking space. An internal staircase leads down to the ground floor. Here we find the two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a family bathroom with storage for the boiler. The master bedroom has access through an external staircase to another terrace on the ground floor. There is space to build another bedroom if required. Just a few metres further, we find the communal swimming pool, which also benefits from fantastic views. The Urbanisation is also connected to mains sewerage and has street lights. The community charges consist of €350 per year and the property is sold furnished.
